AUTHOR'S GUIDE

مجلة العلوم القانونية و الاجتماعية

Journal of legal and social studies

Issn: 2507-7333

Eissn: 2676-1742

First - The Journal of Legal and Social Sciences publishes original research and studies on:
1- Legal, social, legal, administrative, political, economic, psychological, educational, historical and literary specializations.
2- Commercial and scientific reports on international conferences and forums, academic days and theses related to international and national social and legal sciences.
Second - conditions of publication
Research and studies submitted for publication in the magazine should include the following:
1- Take into account the integrity of the language and the accuracy of the style.
2- Take into account the precision of the use of punctuation marks.
3- The need to match the title of the research with the subject.
4- The research must be original, it has not been published before and must not be derived from a book or a scientific thesis
4- The number of search pages must not exceed thirty pages, including references and appendices, and not less than 12 pages.
5- The research must be written in Arabic using the traditional Arabic font with a size of 16 and margins of the size of each of them 2 cm at the top, bottom and left, and 3 cm at the right, and leave a distance between 1 cm between the lines.
6- The research must be written in English or in French using the Time New Romans font with a size of 14 and margins of a size of 2.54 cm on the four sides and leave a distance of 1 between the lines.
7- The research must be accompanied by the research tools used, if applicable.
8- The research must include two summaries, one in Arabic and the other in foreign and key words (English or French).
9- The need to adhere to the model on the ground.
10- The margins are at the end of the article or apa method (author's title, date, page)

Third - Arbitration and publication requirements:

1- The editorial committee carries out the initial evaluation of the research and studies submitted before submitting them to arbitration.

2- Research and studies which fulfill the previous conditions are sent to two arbitrators, where each arbitrator writes a report on his suitability for publication.

3- The editorial board has the right to reject any arbitration if it judges it not serious and from there it is not authorized to seek a publication.

4- The researcher is informed of the result of the arbitration.

5- In the event that the research agrees to be published, the research and studies become the property of the magazine and they cannot be published in any other point of sale on paper or electronically, unless approved by the management of the magazine.

6- In the event that the research does not accept the publication, the magazine is not obliged to return it to its owner, and it suffices to notify him that it is not authorized for publication.

7- The organization of research and studies is subject to technical considerations only.

8- The opinions expressed in this magazine express only the opinion of its owner

9- The magazine is not responsible for the violation of intellectual property rules

AUTHOR'S GUIDE

1- Submit articles:

We invite authors who wish to publish their articles in the "Journal of Legal and Social Sciences" to consult the sections: "Instructions to authors" and "A guide to authors" for our space reserved on the platform of Algerian scientific journals:

AUTHOR'S GUIDE

The stages of evaluation and follow-up of the article

1- After the article is received and the conditions for publication are met (see the conditions for publication on the journal's page), it is administratively processed by the journal's official and then transferred to the arbitrators.

2- Articles sent to the arbitrators, the names of their owners are encrypted before transmission, until the final decision is issued regarding them, whether by acceptance or rejection.

3- The article sent to two arbitrators, In the case of receiving two positive results, the article is accepted. In the case of receiving two negative results, the article is rejected. As for receiving a positive and negative result, the article is sent to a third arbitrator for weighting.

4- If the article was initially accepted by the arbitrators (with reservation being accepted), the author of the article is to be sent accordingly, with notes attached for modifications by the author of the article within a maximum period of 30 days.

5- In the event the article is rejected, the author of the article shall be accompanied with the reason for the refusal, according to the comments of the arbitrators.

6- In the event of the final acceptance of the article, its publication in the journal is determined according to what the editorial board deems via the priorities it sets in terms of chronological order, the quality of the article, and the unity of topics.

7- The article passes a linguistic review by the editorial board in order to avoid errors without compromising the scientific content of the article provided that the errors are few and occasional.

8- After final acceptance and publication, the author of the article shall be notified of a letter informing that and with a specific date for the publication of the article through the journal.
