

Guide for the Authors

This guide contains a brief explanation of the procedures to follow in order to publish an article in the El-Nas via the Algerian scientific journals platform <https://www.asjp.cerist.dz/en/PresentationRevue/500>

It explains the procedures for sending the article, as well as its revision and the course of its publication.

The Criteria of the Article

For the article to be accepted in the journal, it must meet the following criteria:

The article has not been published and is not presented for future publication in anyform.

- ✓ The article should fall within the journal's specialty areas. It must bring something new.
- ✓ Articles that deal with criticism should respect objectivity and avoid any offense.
- ✓ The number of pages of the article is in accordance with the character of the scientific research.
- ✓ The researcher must respect the standards of scientific research and its rules while carefully correcting this article.
- ✓ The order of appearance of articles in the journal is subject to technical questions and is not due to the scientific status of the researcher or his celebrity. Additionally, articles that the journal receives will not be returned to the authors whether they are published or unpublished.

Preparation of the article

- ✓ Articles published in the journal express the views of their authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the journal or the editorial board.
- ✓ It is mandatory to use the space reserved for the article on the journal page and to download it, respecting the criteria and formalities inherent to it.
- ✓ It is necessary to respect the known methodological rules, in the writing of scientific articles.

- ✓ Any article that does not respect the rules and criteria of scientific honesty will not be accepted.

When you submit your item, you will receive a notification in the email box informing you that the item has arrived at its destination in order to know the results of the evaluation, you must follow this on the platform.

After acceptance of the article and its peer review, there is only one step left, which is to enter the article bibliography. This is an essential step because the publication of the article does not take place until after its completion.

Article evaluation process:

- ✓ The article should be sent via the Algerian scientific journals platform. The reading committee scans it to find out if it meets the formal criteria of the journal.
- ✓ In the event that the article is reviewable, the article is double-blind peer reviewed (at least two reviewers). If the article does not meet the journal's criteria, it will be refused. The researcher will be invited to respect the publication conditions.
- ✓ Reviewers assess the scientific quality of the article.

The results of the assessment can be any of the following:

- Acceptance of the article without rectifications. The article in this case is accepted for publication.
- Acceptance of the article without rectifications: the article in this case is accepted for publication.

Bibliographic references entry process:

- Upon acceptance of the publication of the article, the author is required to insert the bibliographic references according to the framework determined by the platform, in order to complete the publication process.

-A "references" icon appears on which the author must click, then on "add a reference", and then click on "new" to insert his work, whether they are articles, books, theses, of memories... etc., as soon as this operation is finished, the author clicks on "save" then "finish".

Once the article has been accepted for publication, the author is informed by a notice, after he must access his account on the platform and inserting the references approved in the article in accordance with the framework specified by the ASJP, and following the following steps:

- ✓ click on the icon « Accepted » and after on « "Accepted Articles » . A table with the article details will appear from: Title; Sending Date; The name of the review; Review details; References ;
- ✓ To begin the process of integrating references, click on the "References" icon and then click on the "Add Reference" icon;
- ✓ To specify the type of reference according to the options granted to him; After completing all the reference information, click on the "Add" icon. And so on until you have correctly inserted all references
- ✓ After confirming this, the "Finish" icon is pressed (if the author is unable to enter all the references at the time and leave part of it for another time, the "Save" icon is pressed until he completes where he left off).
- ✓ If the editor approves the list of listed references, he can program the article for publication. although it is incorrect and does not correspond to what is in the article, the publisher rejects it, and the process is repeated.

Submission of copyright transfer undertaking:

The publication of the article is subject to the sending by the author of an undertaking to assign the copyright (scanned) in the form (PDF-IMAGE)- the form available in the "Guide for authors" field - to the editor-in-chief via email from El-Nas journal (elnasrevue@gmail.com).
