

Guide for authors

1- Review description

Al-Lisaniyyat is an international referred biannual scientific journal. Al-Lisaniyyat journal publishes original articles in all branches of language sciences and language technology.

The languages of submission and publication are Arabic, French and English in one of the following branches:

- General and applied linguistics
- Didactics
- Automatic natural language processing
- Phonetics and automatic speech processing
- Translation and lexicology
- Language and speech disorders

The editorial board of the journal welcomes contributions from authors around the world: universities and research centers. We invite authors to read this guide carefully.

2- Submission

2-1 The manuscript should be sent to al-Lisaniyyat journal, through the link of the ASJP website: <https://www.asjp.cerist.dz/en/PresentationRevue/26>

The author must open an account in the platform.

2-2 The author should send by email the form (copyright) according to the model of the journal (to download by the same link).

2-3 the author should not submit the same manuscript to another journal during the entire evaluation process.

3- Evaluation process:

3-1 Once the manuscript submitted, the author will receive an electronic receipt of his manuscript.

3-2 Manuscripts received are subject of pre-evaluation by the editorial board to check their compliance with the publication requirements, and the possibility of their actual evaluation. In addition, the editorial board reserves the right to refuse any manuscript that does not fulfil the publication requirements, such as the non-correspondence of the manuscript to the scientific fields specified above or the non-conformity of the manuscript with the journal's template.

3-3 Once the manuscript is accepted for evaluation, the editorial board solicits at least two (02) experts according to the theme of the manuscript in order to evaluate it, and determine whether it is publishable or not. The author will have to follow the steps of the evaluation of his manuscript through his ASJP account. In addition, the author cannot withdraw his manuscript after having submitted it.

3-4 Evaluation of the manuscript is double blind. The manuscript is assigned to the experts only after having removed all information concerning the author. The journal reserves the right to request a third expert in the case of reception of two contradictory expert reports. All expert reports as well as the decision of the editorial board (accepted, accepted subject to revision or rejected) are systematically sent to the author.

3-5 The manuscript accepted for publication is classified in the list of papers, according to the date of acceptance. Papers are ordered in the journal's contents according to a purely technical conception, unrelated to the rank of the author or the importance of the paper.

3-6 If the paper needs revision, the author is given a period of 45 days to make the requested modifications and resend the corrected version, which will be sent to the same experts for a final decision.

3-7 All rights reserved to the journal al-Lisaniyyat. The manuscript must not be published elsewhere in any form (electronic or paper).

3-8 Authors are exempt from evaluating and publishing manuscripts costs.
