Editorial of The Issue

By the grace and blessings of Almighty God, the Algerian Journal of Legal and Political Sciences proudly presents the third issue (No= 03) of Volume 63, published in September 2026, This regular issue is particularly distinguished, bringing together a diverse collection of scholarly papers that address some of the most recent, significant, and dynamic research questions across the various fields of law and political science.

This issue is the outcome of the dedicated efforts of the Journal's editorial team, particularly its peer reviewers, who devoted more than three months to the rigorous evaluation of the submitted manuscripts, carefully assessing their academic merit as well as their linguistic quality, Their commitment has ensured that the published articles meet the highest standards of scientific excellence, making this issue a valuable scholarly reference that responds to the expectations of the academic community.

We warmly congratulate all researchers and authors whose papers have been published in this issue and wish them continued success and academic distinction. We also express our sincere appreciation and profound gratitude to the Journal's outstanding team of expert reviewers and associate editors. Their tireless work—often carried out behind the scenes—has been, and continues to be, the cornerstone of the Journal's success, reflecting a genuine commitment to the highest international standards of academic quality and scholarly integrity.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to each and every member of the Journal's team for their invaluable contributions, and we wish them continued excellence, success, and dedication in serving the advancement of scientific research.
